HORNET

Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. ☛ Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. ☛ You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. ☛ Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. ☛ With all its sham, drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence.

As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Be yourself

Keep interested in your own career, . . .

If you compare yourself with others,
you may become vain and bitter;
for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

. . . be at peace with God,
whatever you conceive him to be,
and whatever your labor and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life
keep peace with your soul.

Hornets reach for heaven, catch a star

For years Beech Grove's mat men have been striving for one supreme goal, a state wrestling championship. During this season, our grapplers built up a fine 11-2 record in anticipation of what was to come. In the newly formed CSAC, Central Suburban Athletic Conference, the Hornets won a hard fought battle, and a much deserved 1st place title. The hopes of Beech Grove's first Sectional Title were dwindled away by a mere 1½ points. But Coaches Bane and McNamara's fired up Hornets went to the state regional with 7 county high entries, they then walked away with our school's first regional championship.

With 4 grapplers advancing to the finals, suddenly a dream became reality. Something Coaches Bane and McNamara and their team had built for nearly 5 years was within their grasp.

As throughout all of the season, our 4 state contestants, Ralph Edwards-98, Gary Pierson-119, Mark Cruse-132, and Larry Ogden-185, were supported by a huge crowd of Hornet backers. As the day went on, much joy and disappointment fell upon the shoulders of the Coaches. The first place score between Beech Grove and a powerful returning state champ, Bloomington, was like that of a see-saw.

When the evening consolation started we had 2 men. They were vying for third and fourth places. Mark went first and came out with a fourth place title adding a point. Larry went next and came out third, giving up 2 more points. Ralph was first on the mat and put us back on top as he became Beech Grove's first state champ, finishing up a fine prep career.

Soon after BG's first state titlist

Gary followed with a fine performance. The hopes of a state championship slipped through our grasp with the ticking of the clock and the slap of the mat. The Hornet's impossible dream—turned reality was smashed by the defending state champions, Bloomington, who beat out the Hornets by a half point, a mere half point.

A great deal of recognition and credit is deserved by Coach Bane and Coach McNamara who helped to develop our fine reserve squad as well as varsity. To the coaches and the 1971-72 wrestling team, we salute you for your many long hours of hard work, and congratulate you for your many accomplishments.

ACTIVITIES

Woods And Bogard Reign Over Homecoming

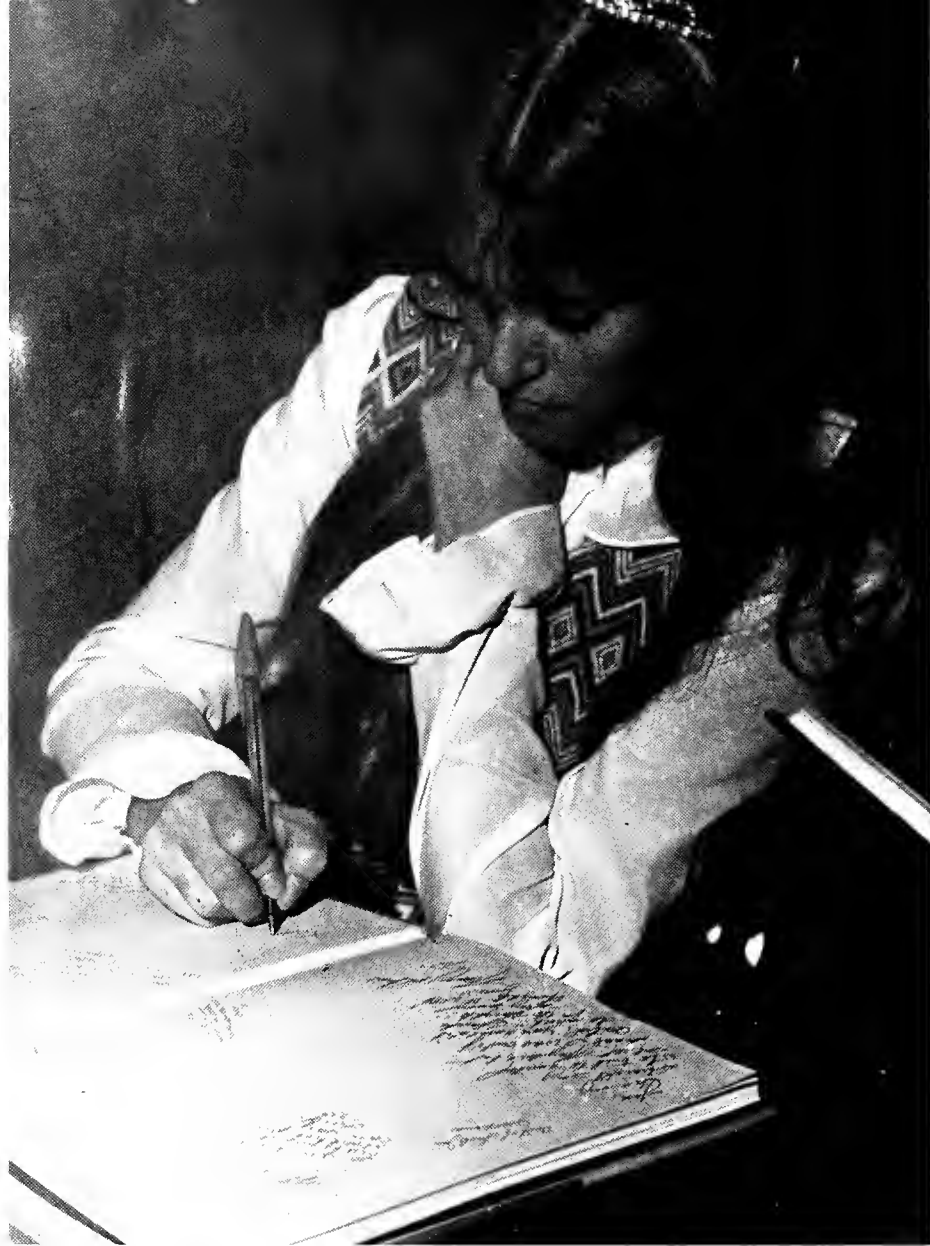

Football Homecoming Activities blossomed from chicken wire, crepe paper, and hope, into three proud class floats of which the Senior class achieved 1st place. Barb Bogard and Curtis Woods and their royal court, Deb Turk, Karen Johnson, Alison Haley, Deb Cooper, Mark Bates, Mark Cruse, Jeff Griggs, and Gary Pierson highlighted the half time extravaganza around the football field.

Hornet females wore black and orange mums to the game and the annual dance that proceeded with the reigning of the royalty.

Activities

Rain brings blooming queen

The fall showers didn't dampen the spirit of the queen and her court as they presided over the 1972 Annual Yearbook Dance. The dance provides extra income for the book and an opportunity for last years Seniors to pick up their books and a small reunion with fellow classmates.

The climax of the evening came early when Hilah Hamble announced the 1972 queen Debbie Turk, while Dara Leary crowned her and Jeff Griggs presented her with a dozen red roses. The princesses were Lynn Martin, Beth Hanley, Susie Janke, Berneda Keene and Darlene Pierson.

Turn-a-bout's Fair Play

With the theme of "Colour My World," the gals got their chance to treat their guys to a night on the town. After an expensive dinner the couples returned to the school for a semi-formal dance, with music provided by the Ja Dells.

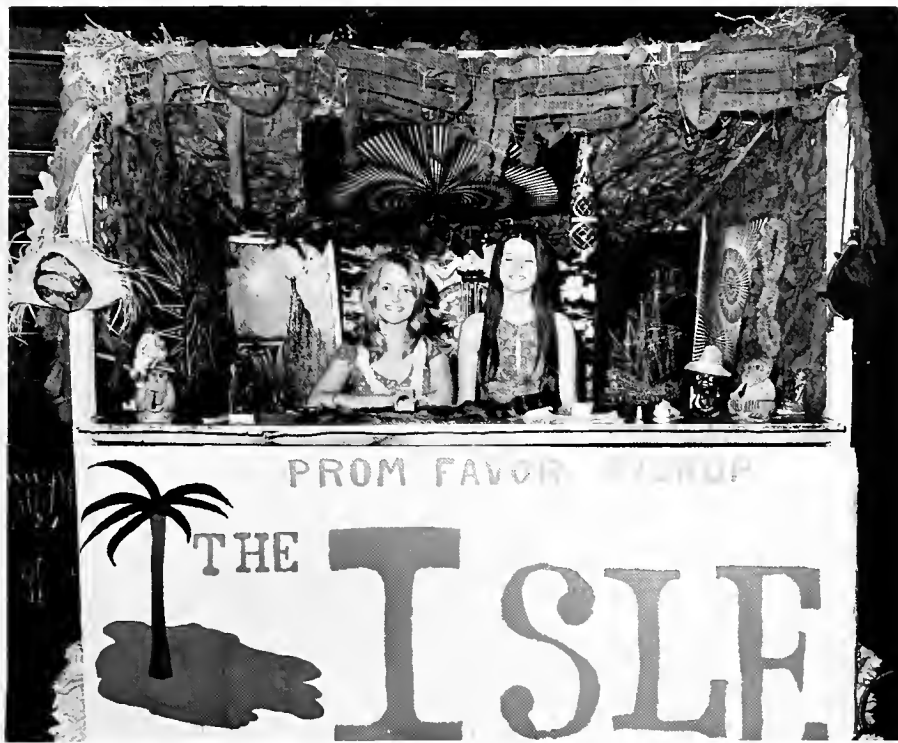

Golden dreams drift to shore

The isle of Golden Dreams theme swayed with the palm trees and trickled with the volcanic stream. Bill Holwager announced the golden dream that came true for Karen Johnson and Curt Woods, the royalty of the isle. The grass hut held the prom favors, beer mugs and champagne glasses.

Graduation begins lifes

"May 22, 1972 will be remembered in the minds of all present today." With these words the president of the senior class, Jeff Griggs, set the tone for an evening for all seniors to reflect on for years to come.

Valedictorian, Tom Fairchild, and Salutatorian, John Barnhart, also charged the class of 72 on to even brighter futures. As the scholarships and awards were presented and diplomas received, the last act of a 12 year journey was completed. Tassels moved from right to left and the last year was history.

The March of Dimes

At times a successful season cannot be measured by a win and loss record. The 1972 Hornet cross country team is an example of fine young men who were always willing to sacrifice for a cause. Whether this cause was winning a meet, or running to earn money for crippled children. The boys who composed our cross country team are some of the reasons we can be proud.

WINNING—is fast becoming a tradition in Beech Grove football. An 8-2 record in the '70 season provided a sneak preview of better things to come. Such as a 9-1 1971 record, Marion County Runners-Up Honors, a Central Suburban Athletic Conference Co-Championship, and much deserving news and sports coverage. Only through hard work, determination and pride were coaches Topping and McNamara able to turn out such a fine season; and a great team of athletes.

County runners-up

The diamond men continued where they left off last year by finishing as runnerups to Ben Davis in the 1972 County Baseball Tourney.

Standout hurlers Gregg Page and Jim Mullikin struck out the opposing sides while powerhitters, Curt Woods and Wendell Crook slammed the homeruns. Coach Jim Hohlt had another successful season as head mentor and found future stars in John Gibson and Dave Atwood. The Hornets season was climaxed with decisive wins over unbeaten Ben Davis and Lawrence that kept them in the running for the Central Suburban Conference Title.

Young golfers gain experience

The golf team had a youthful look this year. The load was carried by mostly underclassmen, with seniors Mark Bates and Bill Kistner being the team's experienced backbone. Bringing back experience next year will be juniors Kerry Axum, Davy Crockett and sophomore Mike Miceli. The team this year set a new school record for lowest score.

1/ Taking a practice swing before a meet is senior Mark Bates.

2/ L. to R. Coach Topping, B. Kistner, D. Crockett, M. Bates, M. Miceli, M. Jenkinson, K. Axum.

2/ Reserve cheerleaders Top: Sherrie Verhines, Below: Beth Johnson, Beth Hanley, Berneda Keene.

The Hornet Cheerleaders got B.G. in the winning groove early before any sport activities started this past school year. Vincennes University was the girls pick for cheerleading camp this year, and while they were there our girls swept several of the top honors out of 50 other schools in the many different aspects of cheerleading. Many thanks are extended to this year's cheerleading crew for supporting and boosting our school spirit the year around.

Beech Leaf changes face: becomes bigger and better

1

When the Beech Leaf broke away from the printing department, the staff was plagued by hassling in getting layouts straight, fitting copy and thinking up headlines to impossible stories. But with the help of the editor, Pat Gayheart and the guidance of Miss Katrina Ragsdale, the papers were to the presses on time.

1/ Lee Musick, Richard Skirvin, Bob Wolford, and Debbie VanHorn prepare an edition of the Beech Leaf.

2/ Always a powerful guiding hand.

2

Pictures, copy, work, work, work.

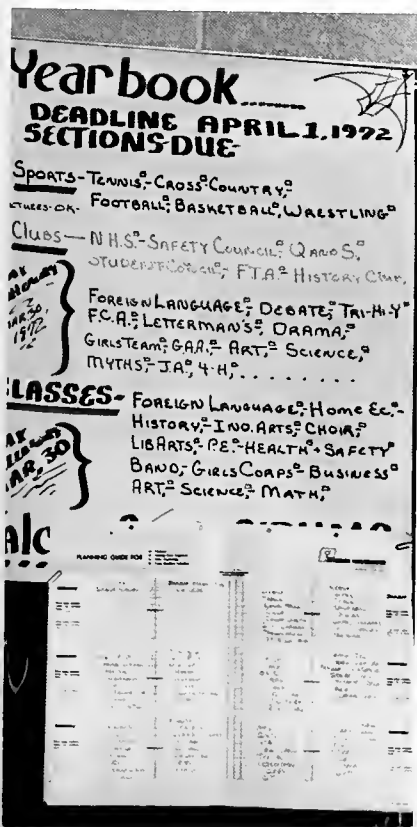

1

Working together, arguing together, getting together, were some of the things that occurred in order to put together a good yearbook, The 1972 staff was headed by editor Dara Leary. Through her able leadership and the psycho guidance of Pete McNamara the "72" Hornet became a reality.

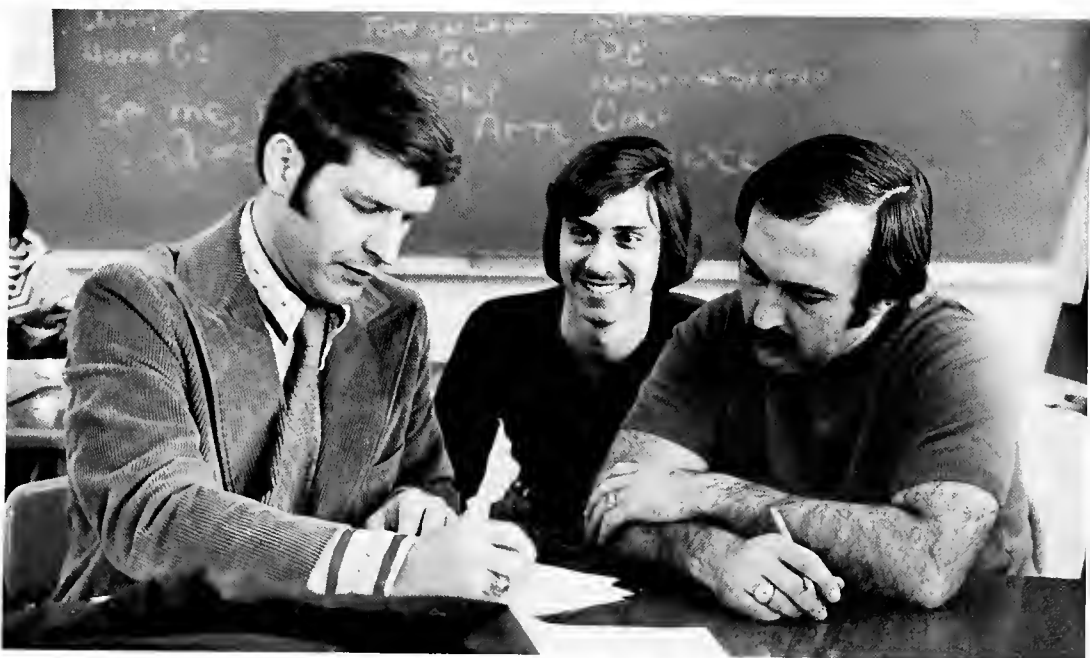

1/ Hamble, Sells, and Lisby put the finishing touches to the ad section.

2/ Paragon adviser, Larry Glaze, demonstrates copy fitting to Mr. McNamara and Mike Mascari.

3/ Deadlines, deadlines, deadlines.

Mrs. Thacker and Mr. Andrew combine to form the foreign language department. They teach the popular languages of French and Spanish as well as the customs of the countries which speak these languages.

1/ Mrs. Thacker makes French easy to understand.

2/ The class listens as Mr. Andrew explains a spanish verb.

2

Home Ec. for male & female

2

The home economic department consists of clothing class and home nursing, which are offered to all female students, fundamentals of marriage, which is for "Senior Women" only, and the foods class which is offered to both male and female students. The foods classes are lead by Mrs. Taunya Dyer. Mrs. Esther Smiley teaches clothing, home nursing, and fundamentals of marriage.

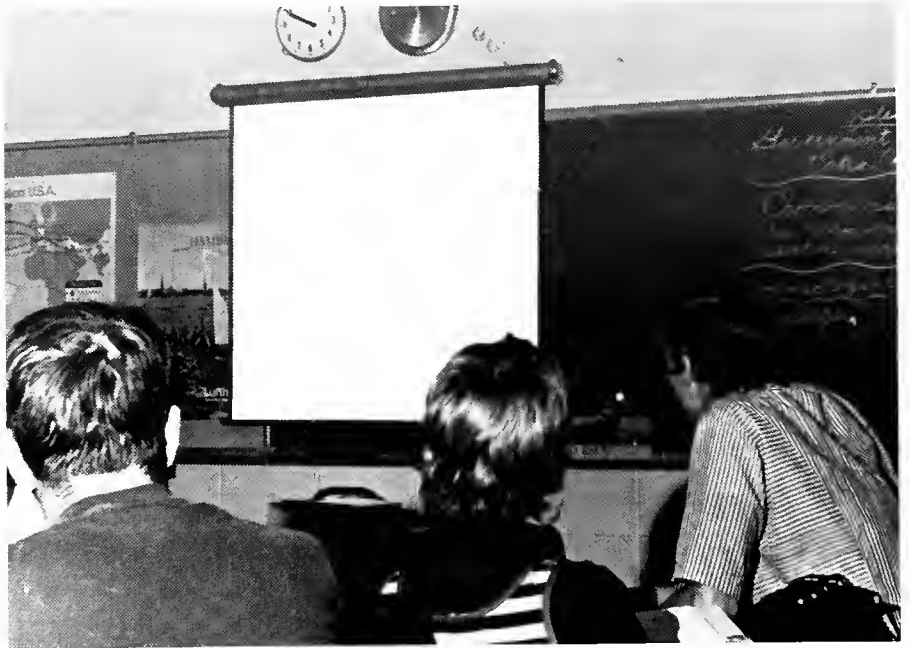

1/ Nimble fingers sew creations of beauty.

2/ Foods instructor Taunya Dyer, gets a cup of water.

3/ Future home nurses learn new techniques from Mrs. Smiley.

History students look back and learn

Psychology and Sociology, new classes in the Social Studies department, explored the individual and human relationships in society. Mrs. Lockridge, teaching Government and Economics, prepared students for the responsibility of becoming adults. Films, lectures, and Mr. Johnson's and Mr. Steckel's personal experiences highlighted History class each day.

3

1/ Government class eagerly awaits the start of a movie.

2/ Mr. Johnson's classes are always interesting.

3/ Social Studies department head, Robert A. Johnson, takes time out for a lighter moment.

Active industrialists work together

The shop is one of the most active areas in school. Mr. Topping and Mr. Mitchell work together in drafting, power mechanics, electricity, and the related fields.

1/ Future mechanics twist wrenches on Mr. Mitchell's car.

2/ Ever so carefully, Mark Cruse completes a mechanical drawing

3/ Mark Malone and Mr. Topping discuss a drafting problem.

Voices join to bring joy to others

The choir this year was taught by a new energetic choral director, Diana Farris. Mrs. Farris led the choir, swing choir, and the Jubil-Aires to many outstanding concerts. The Jubil-Aires is a new group this year performing in many different activities, such as performing at Turtle Creek Nursing Home.

1/ Jubil-Aires get it all together with a helping hand.

2/ Mrs. Farris demonstrates how it's done.

3/ Young voices bring old hearts joy.

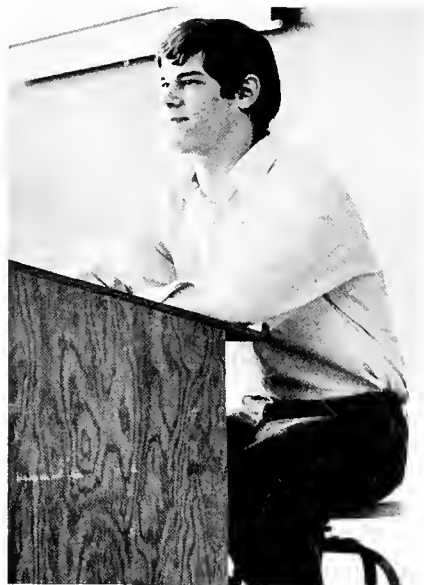

3

English blends creative personalities

2

The English department has two new teachers, Mr. Jewel Osborne and Miss Linda Breyer who are both in their first year of teaching here. Complementing their able leadership is perenial favorite, Miss Katrina Ragsdale and a transfer from the History department, Mrs. Sandy Bray.

3

1/ Sentence structure is explained by Mrs. Osborne.

2/ Speech student, Ed Abel, delivers an address.

3/ The opaque projector aids Mrs. Bray in an English lesson.

Question: Fitness? Answer: Work.

Like every P.E. class, the students participated in several sports throughout the year. Miss Ferkins and Mr. Bane clearly stated that they are not trying to make an all around athlete out of each and every student, but only to discover and improve their athletic abilities as individuals. There has been a new addition to the boy's gymnastics program. This is the "still rings". The boys are still trying to discover and improve their abilities on them, although the class did find the rings a challenge.

Ferkins, Bane team teach Health and Safety

3

The health and safety classes are engaged in a new and better way of learning. The student's classes are now bigger and better organized. Miss Ferkins states: "We now learn just as much from the students as they do from us."

1/ Peggy Boyer gets it all together on the trampoline.

2/ Jeff Page takes a swing at golf in Mr. Bane's gym class.

3/ Team teachers, Mr. Bane and Miss Ferkins, work together in health and safety.

4/ Health and Safety puzzles Bob Parson.

Williams, bandsman, adds zip to activities

1- The band plays a number at a pre-game show

2- The climax was balloons everywhere for the band's half-time show at the Whiteland game

3- Tuba players, Randy Middleton and Jim Tolle, blow a tune

4- The marching band forms a tunnel for the fighting Hornets.

The season for the band grew as concert dates approached. The Christmas program was just a small sampling of the band's talent that developed into a show stopping finale at the March concert. The Spring concert was unique in that it was the first all instrumental music program Beech Grove has produced in years. The attendance proved to Mr. Williams, band director, that the band could really be appreciated.

Girl Corp. provides beauty, grace during year

The Girl Corp started the year by attending camp at Vincennes University. Beech Grove came shining through at camp by placing in the top 10, out of 780 girls, from six states. Leading the Halloween parade with rosey red cheeks and big, juicy suckers, the corp did a routine skipping down the street to the music of the marching Hornets following them. Later during the year the Girl Corp entertained at many school functions. The corp joined the band in the Spring Concert. They danced to the music of "Give My Regards to Broadway", "Sweet Georgia Brown", and finishd with a kick line to "Thoroughly Modern Millie".

Business classes proved every day a big day

The business department highlighted its busy year with the preparation and sale of a birthday calendar. Under the capable guidance of department head, Mr. Hayes Fairchild and his fellow teachers in the department Mrs. Donna Joyce and Mrs. Kay Plank say the year was a success.

1/ Students work on lesson for the day.

2/ Typing instructor Hayes Fairchild, demonstrates on a new machine.

Art department shares love, truth, beauty

The students in Mr. Pete McNamara's art classes approach this year with a new concept in mind to express their own thoughts and ideals in their work. The results with sharing concept have been excellent. A new awareness of themselves and their surroundings have been seen in their work exhibited often in our halls and office.

- 1/ Art Students display talent in the open court.
- 2/ Youthful artist, Candy Perry, gets ready to work on a painting.
- 3/ Senior art student, Susi Young, works on a large canvas.

Scientists learn methods in quest of knowledge

1

Besides doing homework night after night, biology classes experimented day after day on assigned semester projects which were all important in the years activities. Physics students, taught by Mr. Harold Jones, dealt with matter and energy and their transitions. Developing the atomic theory, as well as, investigating chemical changes, were part of the physics and chemistry classes.

1/ Department head, Ben Chapin, helps a student with a microscope experiment.

You are a child of the universe

Take kindly the council of the years

With all its sham,
drudgery, and broken dreams,
it is still a beautiful world

This book would not have been possible without you, for you are the ones who are portrayed in its contents. We the staff hope that you will be able to look back in years to come and reflect on the events recorded in these pages and smile with the knowledge that these are the good old days.
